"Quality Geology since 1878"

In the field...
In the lab...
In the classroom...
and beyond.

“Badgers Make Better Geologists”

UW President
Charles Van Hise.*
First UW-Madison PhD.
(It was in Geology)
1892

Distinguished Alumna
Katherine Fowler as a graduate student in the field.
1926

1940
Patriarch of Sedimentary Geology.

W.H. Twenhofel

* Van Hise Rock:
A field trip with
Board of Visitors,
students, faculty,
and alumni.

The GeoClub Holiday Party and...

The Geochemistry Lab.

The West Wing Addition

Lewis G. Weakes Hall
for the Geological Sciences

A Stratigraphy graduate student in the field.

Geology 100, a course for non-majors.

Hydrogeology professor
Jean Bahr teaches a field course.

2005

Fall field trip with new grad students.

WISCEM will expand the field of stable isotope research

University of Wisconsin-Madison
Ion Microprobe Secondary Ion Mass Spectrometer

Geophysics support staff with a grad student in Oregon.

The Geology Museum

Outreach:
Over 25,000 people visit
The Geology Museum
every year.

THE DEPARTMENT OF GEOLOGY AND GEOPHYSICS
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON